

REMOTE Customer growth internship

Our collaborator is the first Marketplace of shows and artistic experiences in Spain. As a creative organization, they have been working with almost any kind of customer. They share a strong interest and passion for creativity being a focus to understand customer needs.

What you will do as an intern:

- Company search (concert and artists for concerts) and streaming
- Internet search for content related to artists, music, concerts, theater ...
- To look after customers and generate loyalty through excellent service
- To take initiative independently, with a Yes attitude and to create solutions to challenges.

Requirements:

- Minimum 3 months
- Good communication skills, verbal and written, in English
 - Strong organization skills.
 - Great attitude and eager to learn

What they can offer you:

30 hours/week (schedule to be agreed with the company)
Possibility to be hired after the internship
Remote internship
Professional training
Unpaid internship